

Troy

Automotive & Specialty Coatings R&D Center

History

The Troy site was built in late 1980's to house Akzo's North American Coatings operations: Car Refinishes, OEM Transportation, Aerospace, Decorative and Sign Finishes.

It was built shortly after the acquisition of Wyandotte Paint products which served as the company's entry point into the U.S. automotive industry in 1983

Employees: 113

R&D: 70
Commercial: 27
Other: 16

Area: 80,000 sq. ft.

RD&I activities

- Solutions and Development labs for VR, CV, Sign, Aero and Film
- Color support lab
- Corporate Technology
- PSRA

Commercial activities

- Marketing and Product Management
- Sales and Distribution support
- Techline
- Tech service (Aero)

Other

- Regional Communications
- Sourcing
- Quality
- Site Services

